VOLUME CXL--NO. 60.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 11, 1905.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

$1000 REWARD

Is offered as a guarantee that neither Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription nor Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains alcohol, opium, or any harmful drug. Any one publishing false statements concerning their ingredients will be prosecuted. Doctor Pierce's Family Remedies are compounds of medicinal principles, scientifically extracted from native roots that cure the diseases for which they are recommended. They are medicines which have enjoyed the public confidence for over a third of a century. They are medicines not beverages, made to satisfy a craving for "booze."

"Golden Medical Discovery" regulates and invigorates the liver, cleanses the blood, and cures dyspepsia, purifies the blood, and tones up the system generally. "Favorite Prescription" cures female weakness, irregularities, exhausting drains, painful periods, and all kinds of ailments peculiar to women. Accept no substitute for these medicines, each of which has a record of marvelous cures. Substitution means deception to every part of the dealer who is looking for the greater profit on an inferior article.

"Our daughter who was attending college became very nervous and was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. M. C. Fox, of St. Leonard St., Grand Rapids, Mich. "We did so and then you advised us to get 'Golden Medical Discovery' also. She took four bottles of the 'Prescription' and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and you never saw such a change in a person. She said she did not feel like the same person. She was about seventeen years old at the time. I will gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to every daughter who suffers from nervous troubles to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at once. I am sure it will help them."

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY. In copies of Medical Advertiser, a book that sold to the extent of 50,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.00 per copy. Last year we gave away 50,000 copies of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away 50,000 more of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing and for book. In stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"DESPISING DOMINION."

Count Tolstoi, in a letter to the London Times, says he regards not only the Russian government, but all governments, as "infringing institutions sanctified by tradition and custom for the purpose of committing by violence and with impunity the most dreadful social crimes."

He, therefore, thinks the efforts of those who wish to improve social life should be directed to the liberation of themselves "from the governments whose utility in these times is becoming more and more obvious. This object could only be attained by the unique means of religiously and morally perfecting separate individuals. The idea is prevalent that the evil accomplished by the 'present particularly coarse, cruel, stupid and deceitful Russian government' is due to the fact that the Russian government is not organized on the model of other existing governments, which 'are similar institutions for the commission of all kinds of crimes against their peoples.' For the purpose of correcting this the people had used all the means at their disposal, 'imagining that an alteration of the external forms might alter the essence.'

"Such activity," Count Tolstoi says, "is inexpedient and unreasonable, in that the people assert rights which they do not have. 'Violent strife by external means on the part of an insignificant handful of men against a powerful government depending its life on only comical from the point of view of the possibility of success, and piteous as regards the unfortunate misled individuals who perish in the unequal strife.'"

"The Russian government has no right to claims which do not appeal to the great mass of the people. One hundred million of the peasantry need nothing of these demands, their one desire and expectation being the liberation of the land from the law of property or common ownership of land, matters which are entirely ignored in liberal positions and speeches and only incidentally alluded to in the revolutionary socialistic programme."

Concerning the representation demands, Count Tolstoi says: "The people in a great mass still believe in autocracy both by reason of inertia and because they think that only through autocracy and through the Czar can they attain this communalization of land. The present activity is pernicious because it distracts the people from the moral perfecting of separate individuals, whereby only can be obtained the objects towards which those who are fighting the government are striving."

"One cannot participate in political action which draws the people into intrigue, subterfuge, strife and spite extending to murder. Political action not only fails to contribute to the liberation of man from the violence of governments, but on the contrary renders the people more incapable of that vigor which only can liberate them. "Light-minded people, judging superficially, especially those upset by the butchery in St. Petersburg, thought the chief cause of those events lay in the despotism of the government; and if the autocratic monarchical form of the Russian government is replaced by a constitutional or republican one, then such events could not be repeated."

"But the chief calamity from which the Russian people are suffering is not St. Petersburg events, but the reckless, disgraceful, cruel war instigated by a score of immoral individuals. The war, which already has destroyed hundreds of thousands of Russians, imposes an enormous tax upon the labor of future generations. That which took place in St. Petersburg on January 22 is nothing in comparison to what is taking place in Manchuria."

In conclusion Count Tolstoi says that in America, France, Germany, Japan and England the pernicious character of the governments is so marked that those belonging to those nations point to events in Russia and naively imagine what is done in Russia is done only in Russia, while they enjoy complete freedom and need no improvement of their positions. "But," he adds, "they are in the most hopeless state of slavery—the slavery of slaves who do not understand that they are slaves and pride themselves on their position as slaves. The fact is that every coercive government is in the essence a great and unnecessary evil. Therefore, the aim both of the Russians and of all men should not be to replace one form of government by another, but to free themselves from every government and abolish it."

Revolution Predicted. Aaron Emden, who came to Sioux City, Iowa, from Russia four months ago and joined the Russian colony there, yesterday said he received a letter from a member of the Russian revolutionary party saying that April 18 of the Russian calendar, or May 1, Julian calendar, has been named for the opening of the national revolution. Since the St. Petersburg massacre the revolutionists, it is stated, have been repressed until orders could be conveyed to all the cities and provinces for a universal uprising on such a scale that it would be impossible for the government to cope with it. NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is that deprives the rose of its suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always suffers the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have been a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
